Lifelong Learning offers a wide array of learning opportunities and experiences in a stimulating environment of wide-ranging interests. For the most part, members select the class subjects, and all are taught by experienced teachers gifted in the art of communicating in a down-to-earth and colorful style.

The program offers diverse learning opportunities with little homework and no tests. In addition, Lifelong Learning provides a comfortable venue for friendships with persons of similar interest and abilities.

All interested persons are invited to join, and the membership fee includes the following benefits:
- Classes during daytime hours at easily accessible sites
- Activities and day study trips to unique places
- Information about lectures and special events at Baylor University

Dues paid in the fall semester are for the entire year.

The Lifelong Learning program has initiated a scholarship fund to be awarded annually to one or more Baylor students from the central Texas area, and a portion of the membership dues will be deposited into that account. Members are encouraged to make additional donations to the account in memory or honor of someone, and all giving is acknowledged by Baylor University with a gift receipt. Fees for specific class registrations support the operating expenses of the program.

LLCRS01
German Texans and Their Material Culture
Wednesday, 9:30-10 am
Aug. 30, Sept. 27, Nov. 15, Dec. 4
McLennan Museum Complex, 1300 S. University Parks Dr.

In the mid-nineteenth century, many Germans immigrated to Texas, created a culture of their own, and made important contributions to Texas culture. With Dr. Kenneth Tetens, chair of the Department of Museum Studies at Baylor, this class will examine German Texan culture through the materials that have been left behind. We will visit the houses made of log, stone, or using the German technique known as fachwerk. Next, we’ll delve into furniture in the neoclassical Biedermeier style and designs for courthouses and other public meeting places. And the course wouldn’t be complete without a look at churches and graveyards.

LLCRS02
Founding Fathers: The Be Team
Tuesdays, 10-11:30 am
Sept. 5, 12, 19, and 26
Seventh and James Baptist Church, 602 James Ave.
Parking available in 19th St. lot.

You are probably familiar with the all-stars of early American History: Washington and Franklin are commemorated on street signs, parks, and monuments all over the nation, but you may not be aware of the important contributions that other founding Americans made. Gain a greater understanding of all our founding fathers as Dr. David Smith, senior lecturer in history at Baylor, puts the spotlight on four under-appreciated members of the team.

LLCRS03
The American Revolution: Battles and Parliaments
Mondays, 2-4 pm
Sept. 11, 18, and 25
McLennan Museum Complex, 1300 S. University Parks Dr.

Dr. Julie Sweet, Baylor professor of history, will lead you in an in-depth look at the American Revolution and all the different people that it affected. The class will examine the famous battles and generals of the conflict and also consider ordinary soldiers and citizens to see how this war impacted their daily lives and their futures.

LLCRS04
Perspectives on Music
Thursdays, 4-5:30 pm
Sept. 14, 21, 28, and Oct. 5
McLennan County Community College, 1400 College Dr.

What does the conductor really do up there in front of the orchestra? How do sopranos work? Is choral music on the way out the door of the courthouse? Or is it making a comeback? Two leading minds in classical music will answer these and many more questions.

LLCRS05
Stories from Baylor Libraries’ Digital Collection
Wednesday, 1-3 pm
Sept. 20, Oct. 18, and Nov. 8
Mayborn Museum Complex, 1300 S. University Parks Dr.

Join Eric Ames, the creator of Digital Collections for the Electronic Library of Texas. Eric will delve into his work with the Baylor University Archives and Baylor’s American Civil War materials.

LLCRS06
The Heritage of Hispanic Wacoans
Thursdays, 10-11:30 am
Sept. 21, 28, and Oct. 5
Seventh and James Baptist Church, 602 James Ave.
Parking reserved in 5th St. lot.

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month by learning about the history and culture of Hispanic Wacoans. Louis Garcia, chairman of the Waco Hispanic Museum, will start this class with the roots of the Mexican peoples and explore the arrival of non-native people in our area in the eighteenth and sixteenth centuries, the impact of Mexican Independence, the creation of borders in the twentieth century, and Hispanic today. The Oct 12 session will meet at the Waco Hispanic Museum for an exclusive guided tour.

LLCRS07
Story Telling as Advocacy
Tuesdays, 10-11:30 am
Oct. 3, 10, 17, and 24
First Presbyterian Church, 1100 Austin Ave.

Join Sony Dye, a Baylor alumnus and candidate in English, to explore the many ways story sharing helps foster empathy and connection between people. We will discuss how story telling can be incorporated into advocacy efforts, whether informal (for yourself, a friend, or family member) or formal (for a client, patient, or community member). Story-based advocacy is often not only more effective than other types of advocacy, but it is also more ethical. Our time together will, of course, include a lot of story sharing.

LLCRS08
Texas Rangers: A Living Legacy
Tuesday, 1-3 pm
Oct. 3, 10, 17, and 24
Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum, 100 Texas Ranger Trail

Casey Eichhorn, our host, will invite a series of guest lecturers, including noted historians, authors, and researchers, to examine the ever-evolving responsibilities of the Texas Rangers over the last 194 years. The class will gain a deeper appreciation for the challenges that the Rangers faced across four distinct eras, from early settlement to the frontier battalion, the twentieth century, and the present day.

LLCRS09
Another View of the Zoo
Wednesday, 1-3:30 pm
Oct. 11, 18, Nov. 1, and 8
Cameron Park Zoo, 1701 N. 4th St.

This behind-the-scenes look at Cameron Park Zoo allows you to see and learn about the conservation, education, veterinary care, and animal husbandry programs of the zoo. There is always something new at CPRZ, so join us for a fresh view. Students will need to wear comfortable shoes and clothing for wet or muddy conditions. Parking passes will be available to transport students throughout the zoo during the class.

LLCRS10
The Truth About Sustainability in Waco

Oct. 17, 24, and Nov. 14
Mayborn Museum Complex, 1300 S. University Parks Dr.

Class limited to 30 students.

For Baylor’s Center for Reservoir and Aquatic Systems Research, and Anna Dunbar, the operations administrator for the City of Waco Public Works, will provide a practical approach to recycling, water efficiency, managing storm water, pharmaceutical disposal, and green chemistry for consumers. Two of the class sessions will meet at important city locations for an in-person experience of Waco programs.

LLCRS11
A Survey of United States Coins
Tuesdays, 2-3:30 pm
Oct. 17, 24, Nov. 1, and 8
Mayborn Museum Complex, 1300 S. University Parks Dr.

Class limited to 40 students.

Join Dunbar, a Baylor doctoral candidate in English, to explore the history and artistry of coin collecting. You’ll also learn about the art of coin collecting and observe examples of rare coins.

LLCRS12
Texas Justice: A Lawyer’s Perspective
Mondays, 2-3 pm
Nov. 6, 13, 27, and Dec. 4
Seventh and James Baptist Church, 602 James Ave.
Parking reserved in 19th St. lot.

What does a court case really look like from start to finish? Is it anything like you see on TV? Do you really need a Witness? What should you do if you get pulled over? Why does everyone seem to dread jury duty? Join Josh Tenen, practicing lawyer in Waco, to find out the answers to these and many more law-related questions.
